

Zanne

& Lunar Groove

Zanne has been in this area for seven years and is not a newcomer to the Blues scene. She left Chicago to make the San Francisco area her home. Her resume is that of a will seasoned performer, back in Chicago she has played the famous Kingston Mines. She has opened for or played with the likes of Koko Taylor & Her Blues Machine, Buddy Guy, Bruce Springsteen, Marshall Tucker Band, Hank Williams Jr.

Her specialty is the Blues; Zanne has been awarded “upcoming blues master” of the Celestial Order of Musicians by the Black American Blues Historical Society of Canada.

John Anthony Brisbin, a freelance writer, (ie; Living Blues Magazine), upon hearing Zanne perform live in Chicago writes “The ache and passion she wrings from standards like 'Summertime', 'Unchain My Heart', and 'Since I Fell For You' leave no heart in the room untouched.”

Zanna is well none at San Francisco’s “The Saloon” . Along with her group of talented professionals Lunar Groove they provide a sensational preformance.
